Riviera Allergens Statement

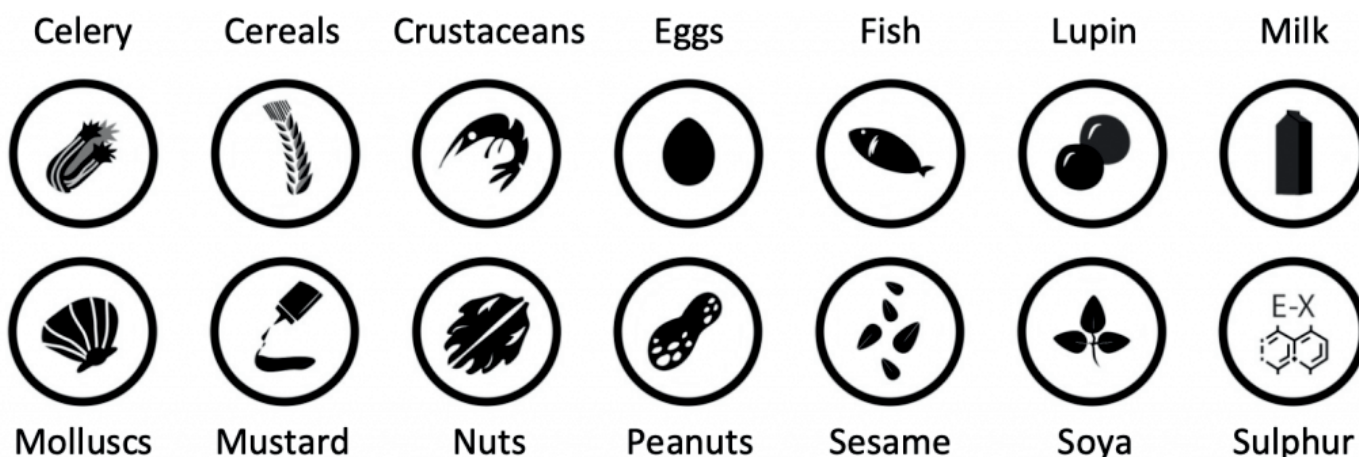

At our café, we are committed to providing a safe and enjoyable dining experience for all of our customers, including those with food allergies or dietary restrictions. We understand the importance of allergen information and want to ensure that you have the necessary information to make informed choices about the food you consume.

While we take every precaution to minimize cross-contamination, please be aware that our café handles a variety of ingredients and food items, some of which may contain allergens.

We cannot guarantee that our menu items are free from traces of allergens, as they may be present in our kitchen or supplied ingredients.

To assist you in making informed decisions, we provide allergen information for the most common allergens recognized in our food items.

However, it is important to note that our menu items are prepared in a shared kitchen space, and cross-contamination can occur despite our best efforts. The allergens we commonly identify and label are:

Sulphites (commonly found in wines and certain condiments)

Please note that this list may not include all potential allergens, and specific ingredients or food items may have additional allergens. We strongly recommend that customers with severe allergies or dietary restrictions inform our staff members about their needs before placing an order. Our staff is trained to assist you and can provide more detailed information about ingredients and potential allergen risks.

We strive to maintain accurate allergen information and update it regularly. However, please be aware that changes in suppliers, ingredients, or recipes may occur, which could affect the allergen content of our food items. Therefore, we encourage you to review the allergen information each time you visit our café or consider placing an order.

Your safety and satisfaction are our top priorities, and we appreciate your understanding and cooperation in managing your allergies or dietary requirements. If you have any questions, concerns, or need further clarification regarding our allergen information, please feel free to speak with a member of our staff.

Disclaimer: The information provided here is for general informational purposes only and should not be considered a substitute for professional medical advice or diagnosis.

If you have specific dietary concerns or allergies, please consult with a qualified medical professional.
